

Abstracts Guidelines:

Completed work	Work in progress
Title: 15 words or fewer (use upper-case letters only for the first word and names). Author(s) details (name and affiliation): First name(s) followed by surname(s); Institution of affiliation, country. The body of the text should be no longer than 250 words and include: Background: State the primary objectives of the study, including the main research questions, aims or theory being tested. Methods: Quantitative studies should include design, participants, measures and analyses; qualitative studies should include design, participants, methods of data collection and analysis, e.g. thematic analysis, discourse analysis, interpretative phenomenological analysis. Findings: Quantitative studies should include a summary of the results (accompanied by important statistical information); qualitative studies should include a description of the main findings such as the themes or categories generated. Discussion: Conclusions and/or some discussion of the possible contribution to, or implications for, psychology and other relevant contexts related to self-harm or suicide.. Please do not include (a list of) references in the body or at the end of your abstract	Title: 15 words or fewer (use upper-case letters only for the first word and names). Author(s) details (name and affiliation): First name(s) followed by surname(s); Institution of affiliation, country. The body of the text should be no longer than 250 words and include: Background: State the primary objectives of the study, including the main research questions, aims or theory being tested. Methods: Quantitative studies should include design, participants, measures and analyses; qualitative studies should include design, participants, methods of data collection and analysis, e.g. thematic analysis, discourse analysis, interpretative phenomenological analysis. Expected results: Describe the preliminary or expected results. Current stage of work: Describe the stage you are at with regard to the planned work. Discussion: Some discussion of the possible contribution to, or implications for, the field of self-harm or suicide research. Please do not include (a list of) references in the body or at the end of your abstract.